

Yes, I want to join OREA.

Please contact me with more information.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____

State _____ Zip Code _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Mail or Email to:

OREA is the state affiliate of the National Retired Teachers Association (NRTA), AARP's Educator Community.

To join, contact a local unit or visit the OREA website.

For Further Information visit: www.oreaweb.com

There are currently 8 active units throughout the state of Oregon.

- Unit 1. Portland Area
- Unit 2. Salem Area
- Unit 5. Klamath County
- Unit 9. Umatilla County
(Pendleton area)
- Unit 13. Central Oregon
- Unit 20. Mid-Columbia
- Unit 21. Union County
- Unit 34. King City
- Unit 99. State-at-large
(if no local unit)

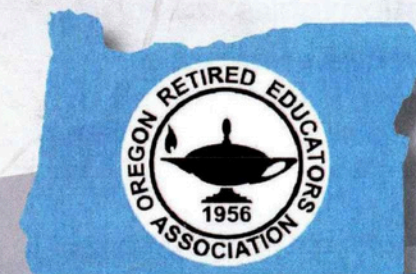

Oregon Retired Educators Association

An Invitation to Join

Who may join? You!

If you are retired or close to retirement . . .

- Teachers.
- Administrators.
- Classified Employees.
- School Volunteers.
- and anyone interested in educational issues.

Motto:

"To Serve, Not to be Served"

Why should you join OREA?

OREA is fun. Meet others with similar interests.

OREA is invigorating. Get involved and find ways to exercise your expertise and passion for learning and education.

OREA is up-to-date. Keep current through Unit meetings; programs may include elder law, travel information, legislative topics, entertainment, local interest excursions and educational trends.

OREA is a service organization with an emphasis on local volunteer opportunities.

What can I expect?

- Informative meetings.
- Statewide annual convention with keynote speakers and engaging topics.
- Numerous opportunities for community volunteer activities.
- Information about current legislation, health topics and education topics.
- Opportunities for social engagement.

As a member of OREA, you can . . .

- Network with other retirees.
- Support and encourage schools, staff and students.
- Support local educational, charitable, and community efforts.
- Explore ways to keep your mind and body active.
- Access Association Member Benefits Advisors (AMBA) discounts and benefits.
- Support and participate in the history of the Criterion Schoolhouse situated on the Oregon State Fairgrounds.

OREA's Purposes

- To provide a framework through which our members can continue a life of service to their colleagues, communities and especially to students of all ages.
- To promote the social and economic well-being of our members.
- To afford an opportunity for exchange of information of special interest to retirees.

Historical Data

1947 Dr. Ethel Percy Andrus formed the National Retired Teachers Association (NRTA) as a network for retired educators.

1955 Oregon Retired Educators Association was organized as a nonprofit organization affiliated with NRTA.

1958 Dr. Andrus established AARP, the American Association of Retired Persons.

1982 NRTA and AARP officially merged.

2023 Currently OREA has 9 active units throughout Oregon.