

Yes, I want to join OREA.

Membership Form

Name _____

Address _____

City _____

State _____ Zip Code _____

Phone _____

Email _____

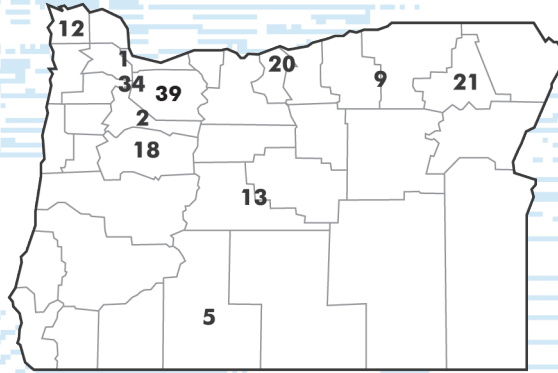

Annual Dues:

$15 for state dues; local unit dues will vary.
(Dues structure is unified; membership includes both state and local affiliation.)

To join, please contact your local unit or visit OREA website.

OREA is the state affiliate of the National Retired Teachers Association (NRTA), AARP's Educator Community.

For Further Information visit:
www.oreaweb.com

There are currently 11 active units throughout the state of Oregon.

- Unit #1. City of Portland
- Unit #2. City of Salem
- Unit #5. Klamath County
- Unit #9. Umatilla/Morrow Counties
- Unit #12. Clatsop County
- Unit #13. Central Oregon
- Unit #18. Linn/Benton Counties
- Unit #20. Mid-Columbia
- Unit #21. Union County
- Unit #34. King City
- Unit #39. Clackamas County
- Unit #99. State-at-large (if no local unit)

Cut along this fold line.

Join

An Invitation to

Oregon Retired Educators Association

Membership

OREA is a statewide organization for anyone interested in education.

Who may join? You!

If you are retired or close to retirement . . .

- Teachers
- Administrators
- Classified Employees
- School Volunteers
- and anyone interested in educational issues

Motto:

"To Serve, Not to be Served"

Visit our website:

www.oreaweb.com

Why should you join OREA?

OREA is fun. Meet others with similar interests.

OREA is invigorating. Get involved and find ways to exercise your expertise and passion for learning and education.

OREA provides current health information and the latest developments in technology

OREA is up to date. Keep current through Unit meetings; programs include elder law, travel reports, legislative topics, school visits, and entertainment.

OREA is a service organization and our members devote themselves to helping others.

What can I expect?

- Informative unit meetings
- Statewide annual convention with keynote speakers and cutting edge topics
- Interaction and friendships with other retired people
- Numerous ideas for community volunteer activities
- Information about current legislation, health topics, and education issues
- Access to AMBA insurance plans

As a member of OREA, you can . . .

- network with other retirees
- support and encourage schools, staff and students
- learn about technology
- benefit from AMBA discounts in travel and personal services
- discover the potential of the mature mind

OREA's Purposes

- To provide a framework through which our members can continue a life of service to their colleagues, communities, and especially to students of all ages.
- To promote the social and economic well-being of our members.
- To afford an opportunity for exchange of information of special interest to retirees.
- To seek a dynamic relationship with other retiree organizations.

Historical Data

1947 Dr. Ethel Percy Andrus formed the National Retired Teachers Association (NRTA) as a network for retired educators.

1955 Oregon Retired Educators Association was organized as a nonprofit organization affiliated with NRTA.

1958 Dr. Andrus established AARP, the American Association of Retired Persons.

1982 NRTA and AARP officially merged.

Currently OREA has 11 active units throughout Oregon.

Visit our website:

www.oreaweb.com